AMAZING PRODUCE

Brought straight from Thai farms to your local Rosa's

Tamarind from Petchabun

Chef Saiphin's home province has the perfect soil for tamarind. We use only the best of this sweet & sour fruit as it's a crucial ingredient that can make or break a Pad Thai sauce.

Pad Thai noodles from Ratchaburi

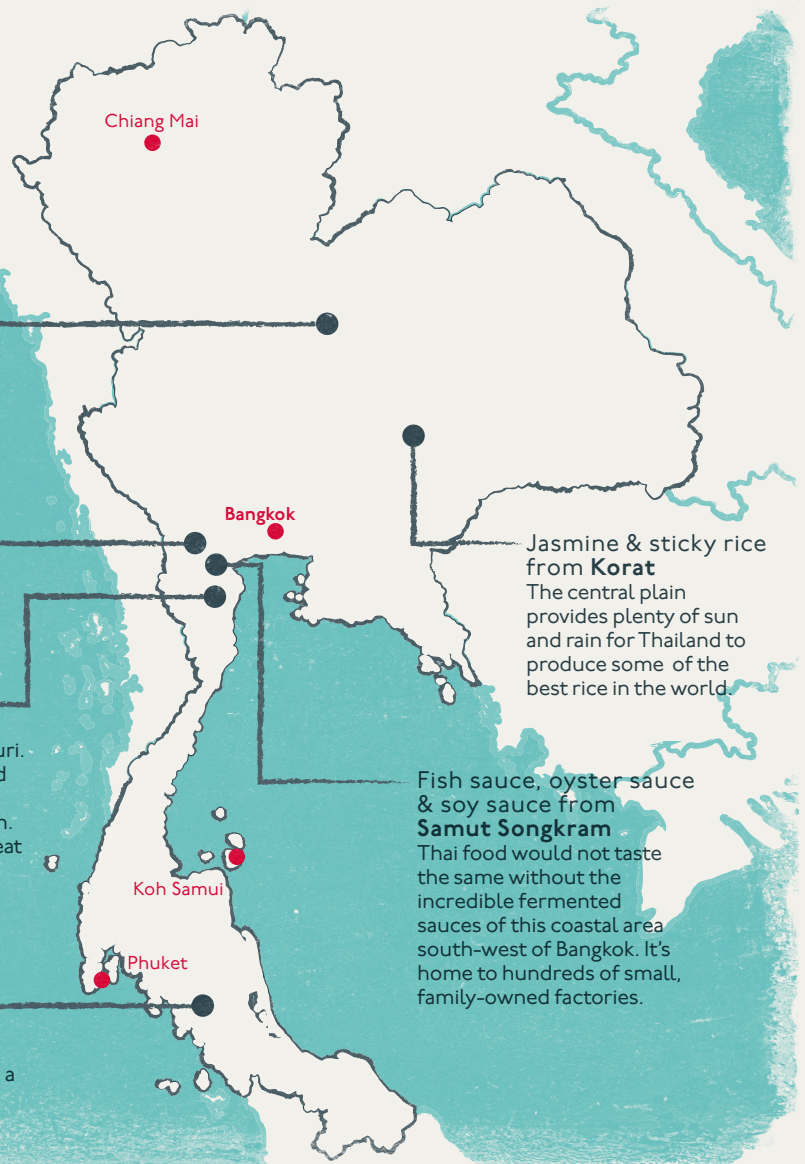

All our rice noodles come from a 3rd generation family business that's been making noodles for over 80 years.

Coconut milk & coconut sugar from Phetchaburi

The creamiest coconut trees grow in the brackish coastal water areas of Phetchaburi. The best sugar farms in Thailand still hand collect nectar from the coconut flower twice a day and cook it in a wood-fired kiln. Its subtle caramel flavour balances the heat of chilli.

Curry pastes from Trang

This southern Thai province is known for making curry pastes from the freshest lemongrass and galangal. We source all of Rosa's chilli pastes from a husband and wife team in the Huai Yod district.

Jasmine & sticky rice from Korat

The central plain provides plenty of sun and rain for Thailand to produce some of the best rice in the world.

Fish sauce, oyster sauce & soy sauce from Samut Songkram

Thai food would not taste the same without the incredible fermented sauces of this coastal area south-west of Bangkok. It's home to hundreds of small, family-owned factories.

WHO IS ROSA?

Our first restaurant opened on the site of an East End 'caff' called Rosa's. Out of respect for the previous owner (and as we had no money for new signs) we chose to keep the name.

Over the years, our Thai co-founder Chef Saiphin has also become known as 'Rosa' – and so the name keeps being associated with good, honest food.
